Certified Agile Leadership for Organization CAL-O®

Accredited by

01 Course Overview

Business leaders are now required to shift the way that they think about their organizational culture and employees and become change agents. In this module, participants will gain knowledge, skills, and techniques that will help them to work toward sustainable agility for their organizations. The goal of this module is to bring awareness to the practices and principles of agility and how they apply to business/organizational agility. Through case studies and various models, participants will gain insight into how agile will and can work for their teams and organization. The combination of this certification with Certified Agile Leadership Essentials now serves as the prerequisite for CAL II.
